PERSONAL DETAIL

Date of Birth: 23 05 1979

Nationality: Polish

KEY SKILLS & COMPETENCES

- Total years of professional experience: 14
- Experience was gained in pharma+Public sector+ Research Centre+Academia Research
- Key responsibilities in statistics: statistical analysis, planning clinical trials, teaching, software development
- Main statistical methodologies: classical and Bayesian, neuron networks
- Main therapeutic areas: cancer, genetics, observational studies
- Main study phases: III and IV
- Main statistical software: R, SAS, STATA
- Key responsibilities in programming: software development in R, to be used via web also (shiny), parallel programming (R), simulation design using grids and super computers, Bayesian methods (OpenBUGS/WinBUGS)
- International experience developed in: Belgium, Netherlands, Vienna, US, Spain
- Project management experience: as a freelancer

EMPLOYMENT/RESEARCH

Since 05/2015

ixSTAT
Co-owner, Private
Position: biostatistician

Main Responsibilities

- Statistical analysis
- Courses on programming in R
- Main statistical methodologies: Bayesian and classical
- Therapeutic areas + study phases: different
- Main statistical/SAS procedures: R

CURRICULUM VITAE

Magdalena + Murawska

06/2014 to 12/2014

Richard M Fairbanks, School of Public Health, Indiana University
and ISGlobal Barcelona Institute for Global Health, Research
Centre, US
Department of biostatistics
Position: post-doc

Main Responsibilities

- Developing methods for immunoassays calibration
- Working on R package
- Main statistical methodologies: Bayesian and classical nonlinear models
- Therapeutic areas + study phases: Malaria study
- Main statistical software used: R

Main achievement

- Presenting methods for immunoassays calibration on ENAR 2015
- R package drLumi : quality control routines for multiplex immunoassay data, including several approaches for: treating the background noise of the assay, fitting the dose-response curves and estimating the limits of quantification

06/2014 to 04/2014

Erasmus MC, Rotterdam, Netherlands
Department of biostatistics
Position: PhD

Main Responsibilities

- Developing methods for dynamic prediction from survival and longitudinal outcomes
- Working for Eurotransplant in Leiden
- Main statistical methodologies: Bayesian joint models
- Therapeutic areas + study phases: transplantation studies
- Main statistical software used: R

Main achievement

- Developing a novel model for dynamic prediction for heart transplant patients
- Student Award on ISCB Conference in Bergen, 2012
- R software implementation in shiny available for clinicians via www.

02/2004 to 12/2011

Warsaw Center of Oncology, Public, Poland
Department of Biostatistics and Clinical Trials
Position: biostatistician

Main Responsibilities

- Design and analysis of clinical trials
- Statistical analyses of retrospective data
- Statistical consultations and educational courses for physicians
- Main statistical methodologies: survival analysis
- Therapeutic areas + study phases: oncology, II and IV
- Main statistical software used: R, SAS

Magdalena + Murawska

Contact: Warszawa, Poland,

Main achievement

- Several medical papers published

FREELANCE

06/2015 2kmm,
Private, Poland
Position: biostatistician

Main Responsibilities

- Freelance
- Statistical analyses, writing SAP
- Main statistical methodologies: classical linear models
- Therapeutic areas + study phases: cosmetics surgery
- Main statistical procedures: R

01/2008 to 12/2008 The Medical Centre of Postgraduate Education,
Public, Poland
Position: biostatistician

Main Responsibilities

- Statistical analyses
- Main statistical methodologies: survival analysis
- Therapeutic areas + study phases: different areas
- Main statistical software used: R, STATA

01/2008 to 12/2008 Poznan University of Medical Sciences,
Public, Poland
Position: biostatistician

Main Responsibilities

- Statistical analyses, consultations
- Main statistical methodologies: survival analysis
- Therapeutic areas + study phases: different areas
- Main statistical software used: R, SAS, STATA

01/2008 to 12/2008

Softword,
Private, Poland
Position: biostatistician

Main Responsibilities

- Freelance
- Statistical analyses, consultations
- Main statistical methodologies: survival analysis, linear models
- Therapeutic areas + study phases: different areas
- Main statistical software used: R

Main achievement

- Translating of user manual for statistical software

01/2008 to 12/2008

LALaboratory & Co,
Private, Poland
Position: biostatistician

Main Responsibilities

- Freelance
- Statistical analyses, consultations
- Main statistical methodologies: functional data
- Therapeutic areas + study phases: neurology
- Main statistical software used: R

Main achievement

- Developing of statistical methods for the analysis of EEG data

EDUCATION

2014 – post-doc in Indianapolis University

2009 - 2013 - PhD in Biostatistics, Erasmus Medical Center, Rotterdam, the Netherlands
(Extensions in Joint Modeling of Survival and Longitudinal Outcomes)

2007 - 2009 - working on Bayesian methods in genetics, cooperation with Vienna University

2005 - 2006- MSc in Biostatistics with distinction, University Limburg- School for Informational Technology, Belgium

1998 - 2003 - MSc in Mathematics, University of Warsaw, Poland
